Zoning: District Centre Zone
Location: Albany Highway, Kelmscott
Local Government: City of Armadale
Current Status: Constructed & Tenanted

Dykstra Planning was commissioned by a local business to undertake a planning application for a new office premises in Kelmscott in the District Centre Zone.

Throughout the application process, Dykstra Planning was involved with the landowner and relevant authorities in designing, planning and negotiating the way towards a favourable outcome. Important elements such as acceptable access arrangements to the Highway and high quality presentation from the street were crucial to the success of the proposal.

The application has since been approved by Council and development for two buildings has been constructed. Located along Albany Highway in Kelmscott, the development currently accommodates a local real estate group and showrooms.
